DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Substitute drawings were received on 6/29/2006. These drawings are accepted.

Election/Restrictions

1. Newly submitted claim 3 is directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: The application as originally filed included what was understood as a claim to an apparatus. Examiner has interpreted the language "mechanism to" in the original claim language as a declaration of structure; therefore the claims were examined as apparatus claims. Newly submitted claim 3 is a method, distinct from the originally filed apparatus claim.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 3 is withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Carmichael (U.S. Pat. No. 6,126,662). The bone implant of Carmichael contains a cannulated outer screw (14) that engages the headless retaining screw (20) the screw portion containing threads (252) is headless, with a pin base, and is engaged within the threads of the cannulated outer screw, while the threaded outer body (12) is fully capable of securing, engaging and locking onto an intramedullary nail to immobilize the nail.

Response to Arguments Applicant's arguments filed on 6/29/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argued the rejection citing the intended use of the claimed device. However, it has been held that the recitation that an element is "adapted to" perform a function is not a positive limitation but only requires the ability to so perform. It does not constitute a limitation in any patentable sense. In re Hutchison, 69 USPQ 138.

In order for functional language to be given much weight, functional recitations must be supported by recitation in the claim of sufficient structure to warrant the presence of the functional language.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
